Introduction

We are delighted you have chosen to be married at the Parish Church of St. Andrew, Cobham. This booklet provides you with information you will need to help you prepare for your marriage. Please read it carefully and follow the advice given. If you need any further help or advice, or need to change any of the details you have given, please contact the Rector, or the priest conducting your marriage.

A wedding is one of life's great moments, a time of solemn commitment as well as good wishes, feasting and joy. St. John tells us how Jesus shared in such an occasion at Cana, and gave there a sign of new beginnings as he turned water into wine.

Marriage is intended by God to be a creative relationship, as his blessing enables husband and wife to love and support each other in good times and in bad, and to share in the care and upbringing of children. For Christians, marriage is also an invitation to share life together in the spirit of Jesus Christ. It is based upon a solemn, public and life-long covenant between a man and a woman, declared and celebrated in the presence of God and before witnesses.

On your wedding day, as bride and bridegroom, you will face each other, make your promises and receive God's blessing. Your family and friends are witnesses of the marriage, and express their support by their presence and their prayers. Their support does not end on your marriage day: you will value continued encouragement in the days and years ahead of them.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13.4-7

Legal

If both parties live within the boundaries of this parish we will read your banns here at the 10.00 service. You may wish to come and hear the banns, though you are not under any legal obligation to do so. If one or both parties live in another parish you must contact that parish and arrange for your banns to be read. This is most important. After the banns have been read you will need to obtain a banns certificate. This certificate must be handed to the clergy of this parish before they can officiate at your wedding. This is your responsibility. If you do not live in the parish of Cobham you may be able to be married by virtue of a qualifying connection. More information can be found on the Church of England website at: <http://www.yourchurchwedding.org/youre-welcome/more-churches-to-choose-from.aspx>. Application forms and advice are available from the Rector or Sue Aitken.

The Service

Our usual practice is to use the modern service from the Church of England service book, Common Worship.

Order of Service

You will need to produce an order of service which can be word processed or professionally printed. The basic order of service to follow is set out at the back of this booklet (see page 10). You should prepare a draft order of service once you have chosen your music and readings. The draft must be approved by the priest conducting your wedding before it is printed.

Readings

Each wedding service has a reading from the bible. You may want a member of your family or a friend to read, otherwise the clergy will read. If you would like to include a non-biblical reading then you may ask permission for this to be included. You must provide the clergy with a copy of any suggested readings well in advance of the service. We list below a selection of suitable biblical readings:

Genesis 1.26-28	Ephesians 5.21-end
Song of Solomon 2.10-13; 8.6,7	Philippians 4.4-9
Jeremiah 31.31-34	Colossians 3.12-17
Tobit 8.4-8	1 John 3.18-end
Romans 7.1, 2, 9-18	1 John 4.7-12
Romans 8.31-35, 37-39	Matthew 5.1-10
Romans 12.1, 2, 9-13	Matthew 7.21, 24-end
Romans 15.1-3, 5-7, 13	Mark 10.6-9, 13-16
1 Corinthians 13	John 2.1-11
Ephesians 3.14-end	John 15.1-8
Ephesians 4.1-6	John 15.9-17

Music

It is usual to have the organ played at your service. The organist will play for the bride to enter and the bride and groom to leave the church and will also play for hymns and anthems. You may wish to have the choir to sing at your wedding. You may choose either the standard choir or an enlarged 'full' choir. You will need to contact the Director of Music, David Fuge, to arrange a mutually convenient time to discuss the music. This should be done at least three months before the wedding day. If you would like musicians personally known to you to sing or play at the service, you must discuss whether it will be possible with David Fuge. You will find some suggestions for music at the back of the booklet (see page 19).

Flowers

You will probably want flowers in the church for your wedding. St. Andrew's Church flower arrangers are able to provide one pedestal of flowers. Alternatively you may want to bring in your own florist. In either case we do ask that one pedestal of flowers from your wedding is left in the Church for the following Sunday's services. The remaining flowers should be removed after your wedding unless we agree with you that they can be left.

It is important that we know what you are proposing with regard to flowers. If you are not having flowers our flower arrangers will want to arrange flowers for the Sunday service. You must contact our Flowers Co-ordinator, Mabs Ostley (01932 862178) well in advance and confirm your plans with her. You should also complete the form on page 17 and post it to us.

Other weddings may coincide with your day, in which case you will be given details of the other brides' names and phone numbers for you to agree over sharing of flowers.

Access for your flower arrangers to the church must be arranged through the Parish Office.

Photographs and Video

You may wish to have an official photographer take pictures of your wedding. The priest conducting the wedding will advise the photographer when photographs may be taken during the service. Only an official video recording may be made of the service; family members and friends may not video in the church though they can record your exit. An extra copyright fee is payable if you wish to record their music on video.

Confetti

Confetti should not be thrown within the church or churchyard but we have no other restrictions beyond that rule.

Bells

You may have the bells rung after your wedding service. The clergy will discuss this with you.

Fees

A table of fees for the current year is set out below. The priest conducting your wedding will advise you on the cost once your choices are confirmed. This money is paid partly by cheque to PCC of Cobham and partly by cash at least two weeks prior to the wedding.

Marriage Preparation

St. Andrew's Church invites all couples to be married at the church to a Marriage Preparation Day, which will take place from approximately 10.00 to 16.00 on a Saturday. At the beginning of the year in which you are to be married you will receive an invitation to a preparation day and we warmly encourage you to come. After attending the preparation day you will need to make an appointment with the priest conducting your marriage to discuss your service and confirm arrangements for the rehearsal.

Sample text for your Order of Service – you will need to fill in all the sections indicated in square brackets – the layout and appearance is entirely your choice.

Music for before the service or during the signing of the Register:

I will usually play music of my own choice before the service and during the signing, unless you have something specific in mind. In the past, for example, I have been asked to play:

Canon – Pachelbel

Jesu joy of man's desiring – Bach

Adagio – Albinoni

Wedding Day at Troldhaugen – Grieg

Gymnopedie No. 1 – Satie

Wachet auf – Bach

Nimrod – Elgar

Extract from "Polotskian Dances" – Borodin (aka Stranger in paradise)

Where'er you walk – Handel

If there is anything you want try asking! If I don't have the music though, it is easier for me if you can get hold of it, but do please speak to me first.

Some suggestions for music to be sung by the Choir:

There is a choice of two choirs. If you choose the "Standard Choir", you will have a top-line choir which will lead the singing of the hymns and, if you wish, sing an anthem in unison (i.e. no harmonies). Basically, it is the Junior Choir plus between two and four adults. The fee for this choir is £100.

The "Full Choir" is the choir that you see on most Sunday mornings, and will sing four part harmonies for hymns and anthems. Occasionally, we get a request for a "biggie" anthem, like "Zadok the Priest", or "I was glad", which requires more resources than we have available, and we then invite singers from outside of the church to join us. They do have to be paid, however, and the fee for the choir then becomes negotiable depending on what you want. The normal fee for the "Full Choir" is £200, for which you would get ten singers. Unfortunately, we cannot offer a choir for weddings on Fridays

If you want a soloist to sing, for example, "Ave Maria" by Gounod, or Schubert, this can be arranged through me, but it is best if you then liaise directly with them about music and fees. The fee will obviously be in addition to any other choir fees.

Anthems sung by the Standard Choir (this list will expand all the time, so if there is anything you specifically want, then please ask).

Jesu, joy of man's desiring – Bach
Psalm 23 (The Vicar of Dibley) – Goodall
For the beauty of the earth – Rutter
Lead me, Lord – Wesley

Full Choir Anthems: All the following in four part harmony.

The Lord bless you and keep you – Rutter

Hallelujah Chorus from “Messiah” – Handel
God be in my head – Walford Davies or Rutter
Rejoice in the Lord always – Purcell
